GOOD SCIENTIFIC PRACTICE
The BTO expects its scientific work to be conducted to the highest standards and has a Statement of Good Scientific Practice which sets out the principles upon which we base our work. In accordance with this Statement new scientific staff are required to disclose the following information: Have you been held to have committed scientific misconduct within the last ten years, or are you under formal investigation for any cases of scientific misconduct, in any previous employment? YES / NO If you are appointed and it comes to light subsequently that you have misrepresented this information, you may be dismissed.
REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974
Criminal records will be taken into account for recruitment purposes only when the conviction is relevant to the post. Unless the nature of the work demands it, you will not be asked to disclose convictions which are 'spent' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Having an 'unspent' conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. This will depend on the circumstances and background of your offence(s). Have you been convicted of a criminal offence which is not regarded as 'spent' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974? YES / NO Are there currently any outstanding charges against you? YES / NO If your answer to either of the above is 'yes', please provide details on a separate sheet. Please state the position applied for and give details of your conviction, including the date and nature of offence, date of conviction and sentence imposed. The sheet should be enclosed in a sealed envelope, addressed to the Personnel Officer and marked 'Private & Confidential'. Certain posts are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Applicants for such posts are required to declare ALL criminal records, spent or unspent. The job particulars will state if the post for which you are applying is such a position. If you are appointed and an unspent conviction which you have not disclosed subsequently comes to light, you may be dismissed.
