

Birdwatch Christmas Quiz

Seasons Greetings! Here's a quiz about some of our familiar garden birds. Go on, give it a try, you could win yourself a fabulous garden bird handbook!

- Which bird was first observed pecking at milk bottle tops to steal the cream?
a) Goldfinch b) Blue Tit c) Great Spotted Woodpecker
 - Coch y Berllan is the Welsh name for which bird?
a) Bullfinch b) Robin c) Great Tit
 - Which family does the Jackdaw belong to?
a) Finch b) Crow c) Thrush
 - This is a Great Spotted Woodpecker. Is it:
a) An adult male
b) An adult female
c) A juvenile
-
- Pic: Jill Pakenham/BTO
- Are you likely to see a House Martin feeding from your bird feeders?
a) No - never b) Yes – in the summer c) Yes - in the winter
 - Which is the only British bird to be able to descend a tree headfirst?
a) House Sparrow b) Nuthatch c) Chaffinch
 - Which bird is featured on the blue BTO Garden BirdWatch logo?
a) Siskin b) Greenfinch c) Wren
 - How many acorns is a Jay likely to stash during the autumn?
a) 5,000 b) 100 c) 20,000
 - Which bird has arrow shaped spots on its front?
a) Wood Pigeon b) Song Thrush c) Long Tailed Tit
 - Which bird is often associated with Christmas (apart from Turkey)?!
a) Magpie b) Coal Tit c) Robin

Please send your answers marked GBW CM (including your name, postal and email address), by 27th January 2012 to: gbw@hiafi.co.uk or 76 Ffordd Ger-y-Llyn, Tircoed, Penllergaer, Swansea, SA4 9ZJ.

Make Your Garden Count!

If you enjoy watching birds and other creatures in your garden, and want to help track their fortunes, then BTO Garden BirdWatch could be perfect for you. Please contact me for your free enquiry pack, including a guide to feeding garden birds, or to book a talk.

Happy Garden Bird Watching!

Amanda Skull, Garden BirdWatch Ambassador 07952 758293 / 01792 891013 (home)
gbw@hiafi.co.uk • www.bto.org/gbw